

Listening to K-Love radio programs and music as I drive to work and home is important because I am the only Christian at my work location, and this station encourages me, and helps me daily to feel connected in a positive way to other Christians. The music has meaningful lyrics, and is good for anyone to hear.